

GILROY'S MASK OFF.

By Appointing Murray He Shows His Desire to Boss Tammany.

Martin Expected to Be Reappointed for the Full Term.

The New Commissioner: Coldly Received at Police Headquarters.

Mayor Gilroy has taken an early opportunity to show that he is the sole master of Tammany Hall now. He consulted only one man in the organization before he appointed Charles Henry Murray a Police Commissioner.

He ignored all so-called faction leaders, and his action explodes the fiction of the existence of a "boss" or any man or set of men who are consulted in regard to appointments or the policy of Tammany Hall under the present regime.

Ex-Mayor Grant's opinion was not asked. The first Richard Croker knew of the new Police Commissioner was when he read the news. The Mayor never dreamed of taking Police Commissioner James J. Martin into his confidence.

Martin was more than ignored. He was "turned down" all his hopes and expectations of future greatness were wiped out by the action of Mayor Gilroy. He not only expected to have a voice in the selection of his new colleague, but he wanted to insure his continuance in office by having himself reappointed for the full term of six years, and the new record Mayor had expired term of two years only.

In political circles the episode is regarded as a plain understanding that there is no "boss" in Tammany Hall. The Mayor wanted one fact, that was the entire Tammany Hall organization, and he was the master of the situation. He even deigned to let Martin that he was the master of the situation. He was the master of the situation. He was the master of the situation.

Commissioner, let me introduce you to my new colleague. Martin looked around for some familiar face. The Mayor answered the inquiring look with a cold stare. Martin lost the power of speech. He wandered from the hall and through City Hall, where he was met by a crowd of people. He was met by a crowd of people. He was met by a crowd of people.

President Martin arrived about five minutes after his new appointee and accidentally met him at the entrance to the Police Board room.

There was a complete absence of warmth and heartiness in the handshake that followed, and the meeting was as cold as the weather.

Commissioner Martin as pique and disappointment could possibly make it. President Martin, on the other hand, was obliged upon him, no doubt, to introduce the new member of the Board to the Superintendent of the Police. He had not received a call from the visiting party.

Supt. Byrne received the new Commissioner warmly, and expressed a desire that he would stay in the office. He was sent for, however, and formally introduced to the new Commissioner. Commissioner McLevee was not present.

The three Commissioners and Supt. Byrne held a short conference in Commissioner Martin's office, after which Mr. MacLean took his departure. The regular meeting of the Board will take place on Wednesday, May 23.

It will be initiated into the methods and practices of his new position.

Sugar Pool Gives That Stock Great Support.

Traders in the Stock Exchange this morning were bearishly inclined on the railways, while they were bullish on the industrial.

The pool in sugar gave that stock more effective support in order to push the shorts. The price first advanced 1/8 to 57 1/2. Then it went off to 57 1/2 and 57 1/2.

As soon as the offerings were absorbed the market turned back to 57 1/2. The price of sugar was 57 1/2.

FUN IN "THE SKATING RINK."

An Old Farce Comes Back to New York After Many Years.

"A Scandal in High Life" at Jacobs' Theatre—Other New Bills.

"The Skating Rink," a skit in which Nat Goodwin appeared some seasons ago, was revived and brought very much up to date at the Bijou last night.

It was generously received by an audience in which "the profession" was largely represented. There is plenty of fun, music and dancing in the production and after a little trimming here and there, it is ready to be staged.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A despatch from Louisville says Jockey William Martin has received advice from Gravesend that his colt Ferrier has been sold to J. Reiser for $5,000.

Martin is to ride Chant in the Clark Stakes to-day at Louisville.

The prices realized last night at the McGrathina sale of yearlings showed a wonderful improvement over those of last week.

It was not expected that the average would be more than $800, and Mr. Young would probably not have complained from the only of Michael. That the average was $1,017 will no doubt surprise even the most sanguine. Last year the average was $1,017.

There was a remarkable year. One of the best features about the McGrathina sale was the comparative evenness in the prices. There were no sensational figures the top price paid for any one horse was four figures $2,500, yet nineteen of the lot brought $1,000 or more.

It seems as if Jockey Grannan is trying to break the Don record. The Don was in one of his running modes yesterday, and he was not kept out of the race. That is the first of the journey. Since never let the three-year-old get away from him, and when the stretch was hit the Don's speed was put to good use. Until Don Alonzo goes up against a real good field he will be able to get a line on this erratic son of Long Tan.

Here is how a facetious spectator figures Ed Kearney the best three-year-old yet shown: Hornpipe beat Dobbin, and Dobbin beat Kearney. So Kearney is the best. How this figuring will do to get on when Ed Kearney runs up against Dobbin or Hornpipe is another story.

Roundway won't do in mud.

Disturbance was another of the Western good things, but the starter had not figured on and the colt was lost away.

Second Attempt is Improving. In her fourth race she stopped badly, but yesterday he showed her was a finished game and strong.

Allen L. is worth looking after. In his race yesterday he showed he was a better far than those who finished in front of him.

Factotum was the medium of a tremendous plunge in the last race.

Don Alonzo hit Riley Grannan hard yesterday. He lost about $6,000 to M. F. Dwyer when he came from behind and hit with betting $2,500 on Factotum.

"My Sick Sisters."

"Let me tell you something. For years I have been almost a constant sufferer from female trouble in all its dreadful forms:—

"Shooting pains all over my body, sick headache, spinal weakness, dizziness, depression, and everything that was horrid. I tried many doctors in different parts of the U. S., but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than all the doctors."

"I feel it my duty to tell you these facts that you also may be cured. My heart is full of gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham, 507 Kasota Block, Minneapolis, Minn."

Mrs. Pinkham's Compound is the one unfailing remedy for these troubles.

BASEBALL CHAT.

Motz, Connie Murphy and Cross have been released to Indianapolis by the Cincinnati Reds.

Stenzel, the player whom the Pittsburghers were anxious to match against Van Thiel Street, is now in the hands of the Pirates.
